OUR HISTORY

IT WAS ONLY in 1979 that my father decided to create his own Champagne. His first endeavor was in the export market and more particularly with the diplomatic network.

No more than fifty embassies and consulates around the world select Gremillet for their prestigious receptions.

My father's dream is now a reality: my brother Jean-Christophe and I have joined the company with our respective spouses, Karine and Stéphane.

We are incredibly proud of what has been accomplished and are working hard together to continue the success of this venture.

OUR CHAMPAGNES

FRESHNESS and elegance are the key words for our Champagnes. While they are made abiding by strictly traditional methods, we also benefit from using the most modern winegrowing and winemaking techniques, ensuring that through our different blends, Gremillet is a perfect expression of this exceptional winegrowing area: Champagne.

Our blends come exclusively from the first pressing, of the highest quality, which we call "cuvée".

For a more expressive palate of flavors and perfect ripeness, our champagnes have a longer ageing process than the AOC rules suggest – 22 months for our non-vintage champagnes.

By popular demand and with our goal to provide top quality, we only make our dosage liqueurs with the wine from finished bottles, to make the process perfect.

We only dispatch our champagnes after 3 to 6 months of disgorgement, after which we consider them to be optimal to drink.

THE VINEYARD

OUR ESTATE is located in Balnot sur Laignes (45 km from the historic capital of Champagne, Troyes) and next to the largest Champagne growing area of Les Riceys, which is the only village to produce the third AOC of the region, "Rosé des Riceys".

Covering 43 hectares, the majority of our vines are planted in an area called Côte des Bars. 75% of the vines are pinot noir which are planted in limestone-clay soil on steep, sun-drenched hillsides, bringing out the full strength and fruity flavor of this varietal.

Thanks to the ambition, work and dedication of its founders, the estate has grown rapidly.

To sustain our sales of nearly 500,000 bottles per year, and in support of our upstream activity, our estate optimizes its blends with Chardonnay from Montgueux, Cramant or Bethon through grape supply. Every year, 40 hectares is entrusted to us by 60 partner winegrowers.

COTEAUX CHAMPENOIS
"ROUGE DE BALNOT"
2015

Although it is our vocation is to create bubbles, especially ones that are delicate, light and dance through a beautiful summer... we had an irrepressible desire to produce a red wine known as a "Coteaux champenois", but I prefer to call it: "Rouge de Balnot". But this was no easy task, because we will always be compared to our predecessors who produced the 2003, 1976 and legendary 1947 wines... which make the mouth water to this day...

You see, smell, and are imbued with an overwhelming sense for the wine, as with a fragrance. You dream of it from dawn to dusk, it is more powerful than anything. You release the bung, and quick as a flash it all begins. Here is the sorting table, and here, the wooden vats for maceration and fermentation, and the press at the ready and the casks all lined up in a row. The 18 months of barrel ageing seem to last forever before the happy day arrives and the wine is bottled.

Oh, what a joy! one that runs deep in our hearts, like the roots of our vines that run deep in a centuries-old tradition that has been kept alive since time immemorial. The techniques are in place, the feelings too...the wine will surely follow.

This was the case in 2015 – everything was there – and the result? Well we did it ... my father liked it, as did our friends. And I'm sure you will too.

JEAN-CHRISTOPHE GREMILLET, CELLAR MASTER

BLENDING

100% Pinot Noir

OBSERVE

Deep and lustrous ruby colour.

BREATHE

Pinot Noir prevails, with its unmistakable nose so evocative of champagne, so reminiscent of Burgundy. It retains all the grape and red fruit aromas, then opens up to reveal an intense floral bouquet of rose, peony, carnation and violet... followed by nutmeg and vanilla.

APPRECIATE

In the mouth, there is a perfect balance between potency and gentleness. The fruit flavours are present, along with the florals and spices, with a hint of leather, coffee, and Havana cigars...

While this wine will age well, it can also be enjoyed young by those who savour wines that sing, dance, and leave a fragrance and a recollection of pleasure in the mouth.

PAIRING

This wine works extremely well with matelote fish stew, trout, lake fish (char) and monkfish. It is also a perfect match for lobster and crayfish in an armoricaine (white wine, tomato and fish stock) sauce, and pairs well with roast quail with braised chicory, pigeon with Swiss chard, thin slices of duck breast with mushrooms, knuckle of veal with baby spring vegetables, barbecued or griddled meat, soft cheese such as a chaource or even an Époisses, as well as a charlotte aux fruits, red fruit tiramisu, and chocolate cake.

OENOLOGY

« THE ROSE DES RICEYS »
2017

It is not a white wine. It is not a red wine. It is the Rosé des Riceys. It leads us through a palette of little red fruit, from the darkest to the lightest, from the sharpest tasting to the sweetest tasting. From a hint of cherry, of course, but also of Morello cherry, of raspberry, of sloe, of strawberry, of blackcurrant, its range varies depending on the year. Here, it tells the story of a beautiful summer.

BLENDING

100% Pinot Noir from Les Riceys

OBSERVE

The robe is a beautiful salmon-coloured red with glints of ochre. Brilliant, luminous and limpid.

BREATHE

The nose is a surprise, revealing a wealth of young aromas, of fresh red fruit and fruit jellies.

It is a union, bringing together quince with rose and raspberry.

Tender nuances of aniseed prolong the pleasure.

APPRECIATE

The mouth is straightforward, flattering the palate with childhood memories : fruit juice, sweets, jams, sorbets, charlottes and clafoutis. The structure is fine making it a unique wine.

You may look for something similar. In vain. This is the Rosé des Riceys.

It is all smoothness with a final note of delicate, discreet and soft vanilla tannins.

PAIRING

This original wine likes morganatic unions. Why not try a fillet of bass in salt crust, a poularde demi-deuil, a veal chop à la crème flambéd with Marc de Champagne, a mature cheese, and all charlottes and clafoutis ?

I like this wine for its originality, which enables me to reinvent it.

Be daring ! Go for a Rosé des Riceys !
